

NASUWT

The Teachers' Union

Offers a warm welcome to:

those who are new to our workplace

- Teachers taking up a new post
- Supply teachers
- Newly qualified teachers
- Students undertaking a placement at our workplace

Whether you are an experienced teacher who has recently changed jobs, a supply teacher working here for the first time, a newly qualified teacher starting out on your teaching career or a student teacher undertaking your teaching placement or following a work-based route into teaching, the NASUWT understands that entering a new workplace can be a daunting experience.

The NASUWT guarantees to provide you with the advice, guidance and support you need when teaching at your new workplace. This support is available locally via the NASUWT Workplace Representative in your workplace and the NASUWT Officers within your Local Association. NASUWT members have access to teacher representatives who understand your issues and are committed to improving the working lives of their colleagues by getting actively involved in their union.

To find out more about the NASUWT and to join the Union, speak to your NASUWT Workplace Representative today.

Your Workplace Representative is:

Contact details:

To join the NASUWT, speak to your Workplace Representative today.

You can also join by making one hassle-free telephone call to our Membership Team on 0121 457 6211 or join online at www.nasuw.org.uk.

The largest teachers' union in the UK